Biography

With over a decade of participation in the music scene, these dynamic duo of DJs and producers, known by their pseudonym 'Ascolta', have been electrifying crowds in Belgium's clubs and events while hiding behind their signature masks. For them, music is more important than ego and the masks serve as a symbol of this belief, putting the focus solely on the music and the thrilling dj sets they create on the dance floor. Starting out in 2011, they've honed their skills and expanded their musical underground repertoire to now include various genres such as Techno, Deep tech and Tech house. Their passion for music and creativity shines through in each performance, making every event an unforgettable experience.

Discography

During the pandemic, they venture into the studio, determined to craft some pulsating raw techno tunes. Their hard work pays off as their tracks are quickly scooped up by Hypnocat & Redon records & licensed on different compilations.
